

CHECKLIST

Please tick list before submitting final draft to Radcliffe Publishing

	Have you submitted one electronic copy and one single-sided hard copy of your manuscript?
	Have you ensured that the electronic and hard copy are identical?
	Have you retained an electronic copy of the manuscript for your records?
	Have you provided the final word count?
	Have you supplied all illustrations: figures, graphs, cartoons, line drawings etc as separate hard copy and separate electronic format? (see in Guide for Authors/Editors for information on acceptable format)
	Have you supplied a separate list of figure captions
	Have you applied for and received permission to reproduce previously published material and is all the relevant correspondence included with the material?
	Are any acknowledgements to previously published work correct and complete?
	Have you cross-checked all the references? All the references that appear in the text must also appear in the reference list and vice versa using Vancouver convention.
	Have you included the title page showing the book's full title, the author(s)/editor(s) title(s), name(s), position(s), qualification(s) and full postal address(es)?
	Have you included a short paragraph for each author(s)/editor(s), up to c.100 words, for the 'About the Author/Editor' page?
	Is there a complete and accurate list of contents?
	Have you supplied, where applicable, a preface, foreword, general introduction and section introductions, list of abbreviations, acknowledgements, dedication?
	If this is an edited volume, have you supplied a list of contributors showing their titles, names, positions, qualifications and full contact details including e-mail addresses?
	If this is an edited volume, within the last two months have you approved the final version of each chapter with the relevant contributor?